Grotting, den nya sporten

"GROTTING" - DEN NYA SPORTEN

Outlines the evolution in caving as author sees it. "Traditional scientific caving" did not offer sufficient public acclaim. One needed to have at least a new discovery to one's credit. In the year of 1989 the attention was focused on further development of equipment. Lightweight gear, pink rope, fashionable suits emerged.

Then the highest prestige gets attached to the discovery 'of new caves that have vertical sections. Mind you, the pitches and passages must be clean, too!
