

Norsk Grotteblad nr 26, Juli 1993

På saueleting etter grotter

This is a short story of discovering new caves (or possible caves/entrances) on the usual autumn mountain trips of the farmers in Norway, to unite and take down the sheep. This took place in Rana. The accessible time, and length of day, did not allow a full exploration of the entrances.