

Fasettgrotta

Fasettgrotta

Fasettgrotta is situated near Famnvatn in Hattfjelldal. Two Swedish made the first known visit to the cave in August 2004, and it was surveyed by the Grundstrøm-family in September the same year. It is an active cave with a lot of scallops and is well worth a visit. The cave ends in sumps both up- and downstream.