Inntrykk fra årets kartleggingsamling i Tjorve

Impressions from the Tjorve gathering 2008

In this article, the author describes his first visit to Tjoarvekrajjge. Once a year several cavers meet to continue the surveying of this enormous system. For a whole week they surveyed several passages, gaining impressions of the beauty and the challenges of Scandinavia's longest cave. The article also mentions the culture of cooking among some of the Norwegian cavers.
